

Materica

Design & sustainability are the origin of Materica, made entirely of undecorated porcelain stoneware. Materica starts from Puro, the bare and true stoneware, the 'masculine material' that so exalted the sculptor Galileo Chini when he discovered its strength and expressive capacity. Puro is the colour of stoneware as it is, without variations. It is the true body of the porcelain stoneware slab to which recycled powders are mixed to give life to the other tones in the range, inspired by the simplicity of nature: Magnolia, Chia, Miglio, Papavero, Fiordaliso, Salvia e Lavanda.
